

---

When is newborn screening done?

By rhissa

Published: 2007-08-07 16:18

Newborn screening is ideally done on the 48th hour or at least 24 hours from birth. Some disorders are not detected if the test is done earlier than 24 hours. The baby must be screened again after 2 weeks for more accurate results.