
What do you do in case of asthma attack?

By rhissa

Published: 2007-08-17 14:31

- take only asthma medications prescribed by your doctor
- do not take cough medicines
- if your attack is caused by a bacterial infection, take the appropriate antibiotics prescribed by your doctor.
- if your symptoms persist, or you are experiencing a moderate attack or a severe one, get emergency help right away.