
What can be done?

By rhissa

Published: 2007-08-21 15:43

- Available anti-epileptic medications are effective and cost efficient
- About 70%[^] of newly diagnosed cases can be successfully treated with an anti-epileptic medication that is taken without interruption
- After 2-5 seizure-free years, the anti-epileptic medication may be gradually withdrawn in 60-70% of cases